

Items	Notes
Rucksack	Must be big enough to hold everything listed below
Sleeping Bag
Sleeping mat / Camp Bed	You must be able to assemble camp beds; NO AIRBEDS!
Clothes to arrive in	Good strong outdoor clothes, Cords, Scout trousers, (jeans if it's not raining otherwise not jeans), Army type trousers. These things are strong and hardwearing T-shirt, shirt or sweatshirt. on top thick socks and boots or trainers
Dry kit / night clothes (also to sleep in)	Something warm and dry, NOT PJ's, try tracksuit bottoms or 3/4 length trousers, & tee-shirt or sweatshirt. Don't forget spare socks / pants,
Wash kit / toothbrush / toothpaste
Black bin bag	Pack your spare clothes, in this inside your rucksack.
Neckers	So you can be identified as scouts.
Walking boots or trainers.
A 2 litre bottle of water	Tap water in and old fizzy drinks bottle will be fine. This is our emergency water for putting out the fire, etc. Washing up items etc.
Waterproofs	Something light and flimsy that will pack in the rucksack if not needed but will keep a scout dry in rain
Woolly hat	Again around the campfire after dark it gets chilly.
Sweater / Fleece	Something warm, fleece is best, something easy to pack in the rucksack. It gets cold after dark
Torch + spare batteries	LED torches are best for battery life. Nothing too big please.
Knife Fork Spoon (KFS)	Do not use Mum's best china / cutlery set, it probably won't come home intact.
Cup / Mug plastic or metal
Plate & Bowl
£4 to cover food & equipment costs
Penknife - SEE NOTE →	Legal penknife (only if your parents agree you are responsible enough to use one, under supervision). Having one with you implies to us that YOU HAVE PERMISSION from your parents.
Bungees	Legal is defined as: Non-locking cutting blade of no more than 3 inches (7.5cm) in length. Non-locking means that the blade can be closed by folding it back in without pressing any release mechanism. Only if you already have some to use, By bungees we mean the elasticised cords with a hook on each end. If you don't have any do not worry, but get a couple on your Christmas list for future use; they are useful in all camping activities.
A few tent pegs	Again, only if you have a few around, don't worry if you haven't.
Other	No electronic items. No phones, i-anything, MP3 players. Game consoles or GPS. Anything needing batteries or power is banned, with the exception of your torch.
